HAMMOND

Du

Alone, sand is desolate and sustains no life. Sand must be combined with other soil, watered by many rains, held in check by embankments, fertilized and tended to become productive.

Youth, untrained, is helpless and unprepared for life. Youth must be enriched by friendships, molded by learning, held in check by firm council, strengthened by activity, and urged onward by inspired leadership and ambition to succeed. They then become the foundation of citizenship, the bulwarks of our nation.

HIGH SCHOOL

1940

Sand, driven by tireless winds, falls into heaps grain by grain. Each grain combining with the others forms the dune which, replenished by years of winds, becomes a monument of nature, a landmark of time.

Hammond High School, symbol of democracy and landmark of progress, is the stronghold where individuals, driven by ambitions, are molded by learning. These halls and classrooms proffer guidance to youth and mold them in the spirit of democracy and equality of man. Here, they are given a center of common ideals, of ambition, and of friendship through studies, activities, and supervised fun.

Sand, enriched by the sun, becomes many bued and lustrous. White, golden and even black grains, blown by the winds from everywhere form patterns that may be forever preserved in sandstone or disintegrated once again, and scattered.

Students, enriched by friendships, become loyal, tolerant, and understanding. Intelligent, ambitious, and fun-loving — they are drawn together by common ideals that form the basis for social and business relations of the future.

Sand, ever shifting, sweeping onward and upward, never resting, always creeping farther and higher. Fresh winds bring coarse, dull particles, exposing new land and covering old. Rough grains become smoothed and polished by the force of the elements and the passage of time.

Freshmen, new, unacquainted, malleable, and eager, drawn by ambition. Sophomores, each day advancing, new interests found, new work enjoyed, new friendships strengthened. Juniors, striding forward, nearer their goals, ready for leadership. Seniors, ideals formed, friends made, goals reached, leaving traditions and precedents for those who follow.

SENIOR SPONSORS, OFFICERS, CONDUCTED CLASS DUES DRIVE

The senior class started the year with a dues drive to collect money to be used for their gift to the library, the school, and the Dunes. The treasurer, Nancy Cleveland, appointed the following dues collectors: Bettee Poole, Loretta Kochery, Jack Hardebeck, Irene Duggan, Ralph Salyer, Jane Carroll, Jean Klein, Jerry O'Neil, Eldonna Rinkenberg, Alice Duncan, Dick Baldwin, George Gilbert. The officers of the class were active throughout their four years. Jack Hardebeck, president, was in National Honor Society, House, Ace of Clubs, on the debate team and in Speech Arts Club. Alice Duncan, vice president, was secretary of the junior class, treasurer of the Ace of Clubs, president of the Biology Club, and a member of National Honor. Jane Carroll, secretary, belonged to Bohemian Club, and National Honor Society; she was co-publicity editor of the Dunes, and on the prom committee.

The seniors chose as their sponsors Miss Breyfogle, Mr. Dunham, and Mr. Matson. Miss Breyfogle has taught at Hammond High for 20 years, teaching both algebra and history. In 1928 when the monitor system was started she was the sponsor and was in charge for six and one half years. She has been a sponsor of the House and Sphinx Club.

Mr. Dunham has been at Hammond High for three years. During this time he has taught business training, consumer's education, bookkeeping, and business management. He has been business manager of the Herald and sponsor of the now extinct Ping Pong Club.

For five years Mr. Matson has been a teacher at Hammond High and has taught algebra, physics, geometry, and business arithmetic. He has been the sponsor of the Boys' Aeronautics Club for five years.

1940 SENIORS ENTERED MANY ACTIVITIES

Heading the Hammond High School Association were Ted Ostendorf, president; Charles Hansen, vice-president; and Nancy Black recorder. Ted Ostendorf selected Mary Kovacheff, secretary of the Red Cross; Delphia Minter, secretary of safety; Carl Volkman, secretary of justice; and Bill Doege, secretary of social activities. Seniors on the Central Social Committee were Mary Lawler, secretary; Mary Ellen Murray, Betty Ballard, Norma Ellen Kristoff, Bonita Robbins, Shirley Cole, Bill Jens, Abe White, Del Gauthier, Ernest Besch, and Gerry Stankie. Loretta Kochery, Louis Sosin, and Betty Ballard served as senior class senators, and 32 of the 47 House members were in the senior class. Leading the senior Prom this year was Jack Hardebeck, president of the class; followed by Alice Duncan, vice-president; Jane Carroll, secretary; and Nancy Cleveland, treasurer. Faculty advisors of the senior class were Miss Breyfogle, Mr. Matson, and Mr. Dunham.

This year's class had 75 outstanding seniors who were elected to the National Honor Society. The officers of the group included Benny Dankovis, president; Carl Volkman, vice-president; Michael Lengyel, secretary; and Shirley Cole, treasurer.

One half of the Hammond High debating team was composed of seniors, including Jack Hardebeck and James Chambers. The team held honors in numerous contests offering stiff resistance to all competitors. Eldeen Harrison, Nancy Black, Bob Weiss, Jack Hardebeck, and James Chambers were active in other phases of speech work.

The co-editors-in-chief of the Herald were James Chambers and Don Walstrum, and those seniors assisting them on the editorial staff were Louis Sosin, news editor; Ed Labas and Bob Weiss, associate editors; Bertee and Gerry Poole, feature editors; Bertha Naugle, press bureau editor second semester; Lois Nuoffer, press bureau editor first semester; Jerry Kettler, news feature editor; Don McNeil, sports editor; Marjorie Adley and Elaine Ramage, general assistants. The financial end of the paper was managed by Bob Howerton, business manager; aided by Ruth Adkins. On the Dunes editorial staff were Jean Keith, editor-in-chief; Nancy Black, assistant editor; Eldonna Rinkenberg, senior editor; Nancy Cleveland, class editor; Jean Klein and Jane Carroll, publicity editors; Jean Klein, girls' sports editor; assisted by Mary Lawler, Betty Ballard, Alvin Dust, Fauneil Jaques, Loretta Kochery, Norma Ellen Kristoff, Jerry O'Neil, Gwendolyn Amoss, and Arlyne Stoehr. Jane Wolf as business manager chose Billie Heninger, Sam Postlewaite, Irene Duggan, Dorothy Yoder, Mildred Pictor, and Arnold Eggebrecht as her associates.

The class was well represented in the music department, for there were 45 seniors in the Glee and Choral Clubs. The officers of the Choral Club included Kenneth Bock, president; Walter Juergens, treasurer; Wilma Benson, secretary; and Don McNeil, librarian. Of the members of the band and orchestra there were 47 seniors.

Eight seniors composed the wrestling team. They were Lewry, Gollner, Shropshire, Salyer, Olson, Beck, and Allen. Karlen, Jens, and Gauthier were on the tennis team. On the first string of the football team were 18 seniors; Dankovis, captain; Scott, Ford, Vanes, Krager, Bickham, Zahre, Olson, Volkman, Bonechi, Ostendorf, Salyer, Stuart, Hansen, Dyer, Kwolek, Allen, and Shropshire. Frank LaMantia was the senior manager. Easton's track and cross country teams were bolstered by seniors: Baldwin, Clark, Dell, Ford, Fusner, Gilbert, Hansen, Johnsen, Kwolek, Krager, Mears, Ostendorf, Smith, Stuart, and Woolard. The state champion swimming team recalled 5 outstanding seniors: Highland, state champion breast stroke; Carroll, 3rd place breast stroke; La Baw, state champion 220 yard freestyle; Bauer state champion diving; and Latzko, breast stroke. Fred Carter was the senior manager. Seniors on the basketball team were Mallett and Stuart, co-captains; Ford, Scott, and Ostendorf.

The only senior cheer leader was Lillian Wiggins. Officers in the G. A. C. were Dorothy Downing, president; Mary Wittig, vice-president; and Betty Kroer, secretary. On the girls' swimming team were Downing, Volk, Smith, Wolf, Blocker, Ellis, and Lawson.

Betty Ballard, Abe White, Alvin Dust, Donald Brusck, and Jack Carroll represented the class in the fall play, and the senior play cast included Marion Meyer, Ruth Adkins, Lillian Wiggins, Paul Page, Ray Longhway, Norman Allen, and Bob Weiss.

Scholastically the class was lead by Vera Branson, valedictorian; and Grant Collins, salutatorian.

Sand, whirling slowly, growing stronger, adding new grains, finally sweeping and blotting out all in its path, dreaded by all, balting for nothing, covers and conquers
all. With renewed winds come new conquests, and each new wind with added velocity drives fiercely before it, the sand.

Buoyed up by school spirit, backed by the student body, aided by excellent coaches, our teams have long been recognized as potent contenders in athletic prowess. Known for its champions in sports, its clean play, its unfailing spirit, our teams are envied and hard fought in all events.
Should championships fail to fall our way, our spirit, fight, and determination live on to inspire the teams of the future.

HAMMOND WILDCATS CLOSED SEASON WITH FIVE WINS AND FOUR LOSSES

The Purple gridders were defeated in the first game of the season by Emerson of Gary with a score of 12-6. Then, using powerful offensive tactics, they came out on top in the game with Washington of E. C., beating the Senators 7-0. Traveling to Kokomo, the Cat machine was stopped by the stone wall defense of the opposing "Kats" with a final verdict of 13-7. Next came a victory for Hammond in the Roosevelt game with three touchdowns piled up in Hammond's favor for a final score of 20-6. Then Hammond's Bobby Livingstone came through with two more score-getting touchdowns in the Clark game to make the score Hammond-14, Clark-7. Despite last year's defeat at the hands of the Purple, the Whiting Oilers displayed tricky plays and fast running to provide another defeat for the Cats, 13-7. Purple power came to the front again in the Horace Mann game, with a Cat victory of 18-0. Tech's eleven took the count at the hands of the Purple footballers in a hard fought battle, with a final of 26-6. The season closed with the out-of-town game with Sidney Lanier. Hammond wound up in a blaze of fight but was defeated by the Poets 6-0.

CAGERS WIN 7 AND LOST 13 IN ONE OF TOUGHEST SEASONS ON THE LIST

The Purple splinter boys won 7 out of the 20 games this year and were defeated 23-24 by Washington in the sectional tourney.

Starting the season with the Lew Wallace game in the Civic Center, the Wildcats were downed by the close margin of 32-30. Then meeting Tech they fell under the Tiger attack with a score of 36-33. Next came the Horace Mann game and Hammond's first victory by a close edge, 27-25. The second foe to fall under the Wildcat machine was Clark, who was defeated by the score of 22-18. The Cats then lost to Froebel 26-24. Next game with Washington of E. C. was another defeat for the Purple, with the two point verdict of 28-26. Then came the Whiting game and an Oiler victory of 37-30. Next on the list was out-of-towner-Valparaiso. Traveling there the Cat machine was downed by the close margin of 28-26. The next game was a victory for the Purple, defeating Roosevelt 36-32. Pepped up by the Roosevelt victory they then beat Elkhart, here, by the score of 34-18. The next game was a heartbreaker for the Purple, being defeated by Emerson by the close margin of 26-25. Then traveling to New Albany the Cats were beaten 35-36. Another out of town game which was also a victory for the opposition was the Jefferson game which ended 30-27. Hammond then fell under the Whiting Oilers' onslaught again, being defeated 29-26. Then in a tangle with Horace Mann they emerged victor with the score of 32-29.

Then the highly touted Muncie squad came to H. S. and beat the Wildcats by a score of 37-32. The next one, a victory for the Purple five, was the game with Washington, 33-23. Then the soon-to-be-state champs, Hammond Tech, beat Hammond High for the second time in the season with a score of 29-24.

The Valpo squad came down again for a second game and beat the Cats 43-25. The last game of the season before tourney time was a victory for the Purple quintet. The score at quitting time in the game with Roosevelt was 32-24. Then came the sectional and with it came a defeat in the first game at the hands of Washington by the close score of 24-23.

WILDCATS WON SECOND IN STATE MEET

Coach Easton's men had a top season this year, winning every meet during the season. They won five championships this year, the indoor, cross country, Conference Championship, and the Kokomo and Muncie Relays. It was their third time for the indoor, third for cross country, first for the conference, first for the Kokomo relays and second for the Muncie relays.

The winning mile relay team was composed of Ford, Johnson, Hansen and Woolard.

Coach Easton will lose most of his important men this year, for many of them are seniors. Many new faces will appear on the cinder track next year, and Easton says he will depend on these for his new team. Coming back are Litton, James, Presko, Pelc, Prymiski, Homsrich, Wisniewski, Smith, and Awe.

The thinliclads copped second in state with 31 points to Froebel's 47. Tom Woolard finished second in the 880 yard dash behind Gene Yates of Anderson.

Hi-lights of sectional meet were the breaking of six records by the Wildcat aggregation who tolled 82 points. First places for Hammond were captured by Adam Kwolek in the 100 and 220 yard dashes; Chuck Hansen in the 440 yard run; Tom Woolard in a blistering race in the 880 yard run; Albert Ford with a record 120 yard high hurdles race and a tie for first place in the high jump; Otis Jones in the broad jump; Warren Krager in the shot put; Thornton Courtice with a tie for first in the pole vault. The half mile relay team composed of Dell, Blackman, Mamala, and Kwolek won first in conference and second in state.

MERMEN SPLASHED THEIR WAY TO SECOND STATE VICTORY IN FIVE YEARS

The Purple tankmen showed both speed and endurance this year. Hammond High and South Bend Central were evenly matched in the conference and State meets, South Bend beating Hammond and winning the conference by seven points, while Hammond beat them and took the laurels for State by two points. The State meet proved a gruelling but thrilling experience for the Wildcat squad.

C. La Baw, Highland, Bauer and Carroll, all seniors, placed first in the State. They won the 220 yd. free style, the 100 yd. backstroke, and the diving honors, respectively, while Carroll aided the medley relay team on to victory. Other swimmers placing first were sophomores Kolle, Kohl, Applegate and G. La Baw who won the 200 yd. free style relay.

The Wildcat swimming team, coached by Mr. Staley, is losing most of the team through graduation, but the tankers are looking forward to the state meet next year.

Staley's cauliflower lads won the conference wrestling meet this season with five first place winners, Agorichas, Fredericks, Lewry, Gollner and Shropshire. Allen placed second in this meet. The Hammond grapplers came in ninth in the State meet. Jerry Fredericks captured a first in the 115 lb. division.

The muscle-bound boys had a little tough luck in the State meet, but they look forward to a banner season next year with many of the fellows coming back to the mat.

RACKETEERS CAPTURED CONFERENCE TITLE, PLACE
SECOND IN STATE

The racket lads, Gauthier, Karlen, Cramer, Pilzer and Sobek, lost one game throughout the entire season and swished their way through the conference meet to come in first. Then going down state they were defeated by South Bend to bring home second place laurels. Dale Karlen, who hasn't lost a game in four years, won a first place in the state. Cramer and Sobek are coming back on the courts next season and with the new hopefuls promise to be a "tops" team next year.

TENNIS TEAM
Kneeling: Bill Jens, Del Gauthier, and John Pilzer
Standing: Dale Karlen and Joe Sobek

BASEBALLERS LACKED EXPERIENCE

The Wildcat baseball team played 10 games this year and at the end of 6 games they had won 2 and lost 4. Coached by Carl Huffine, the diamond men were hindered by the fact that most of the team was composed of underclassmen who lacked experience.

Tops on the team this year were Hurt, catcher; Hoffmann, first base; and Chet Nagle, pitcher; who didn't allow more than 5 hits a game all year.

Sobek, Gurnak, Hoffman, and Nagy will all be back next year, and Huffine promises a banner season.

GOLFERS PLACED FIFTH IN CONFERENCE MEET

Hammond High's golf team, composed of Giles, Granack, Metrick, Lengyel, Rutz, and Horkovich, is coached by Jim Garrett. Woodmar Country Club is their home course, where they play all their home matches.

At the end of six games this season, they had won two, tied one, and lost three. Number One man on the team is Giles. They played in the Conference Meet at LaPorte this year and came in fifth.

ACT

Sand, assembled for years, is scattered: some to beaches, some to dunes, some to deserts, and others to form stone deposits. Blown by winds, heated by sun, and purified by waters, sand is molded by these elements into vital parts of its surroundings, a factor of strength in its combined power.

Students, assembled for learning, guided by interests, seeking enjoyment, group together in activities. Some prefer vocational, some creative, some supplementary activities to studies, and others prefer politics within the school. These activities, multiple and varied, through guidance and pleasure mold the characters and form the background for future vocations.

BOYS' AERONAUTICS CLUB SPONSORED MODEL PLANE CONTEST

A model airplane contest was sponsored by the club. All the members built models and exhibited them in the gym. The group collaborated with the Girls' Aeronautics Club and gave a successful party. Aviation and its principals were discussed at meetings.

Besides having an interest in aeronautics, a boy must be able to construct a model plane that flies to be eligible for membership. Mr. Matson is the faculty sponsor.

Elected officials of the club were president, Charles Scott, Jr.; vice-president, Robert Dycus; treasurer, Bob Johnson; secretary, Kenneth Follmar; and sergeant-at-arms, John Werkowski.

GIRLS BUILT MODEL AIRPLANES

Future stewardesses and enthusiastic aviatrixes-to-be, met to carry on their interest in the Girls' Aeronautics Club. Any girl interested in aeronautics is eligible for membership. Miss M. L. Scott is the faculty advisor.

The Girls' Aeronautics Club combined with the Boys' Aeronautics Club for a roller skating party. Model airplane building was encouraged. Aviation and its problems, especially the duties of stewardess, were discussed at the meetings.

The officers of the club were president, Lillian Hammik; vice-president, Henrietta Milne; secretary, Lillian Ray; and treasurer, Virginia Ellis.

REINHARDT ELSTER SPOKE BEFORE CLUB

As a term project, German Club members designed and constructed a miniature model village of the Middle Ages. Reinhardt Elster, prominent Hammond business man, spoke on his travels in Germany. On March 29, the club sponsored an after-school dance. German games were played at several meetings.

Members must be students of German and before being taken into the club are selected by old members.

The officers who conducted the meetings were president, Robert Eret; vice-president, Gust Warner; treasurer, Florence Barton; and secretary, Betty Mason. Miss Schuelke is the club sponsor.

FRENCH CLUB OBSERVED TWELFTH NIGHT WITH PARTY

Vive la France! — Any French Club member could tell what this means, for all meetings are conducted in French to encourage its use and to make it more familiar to the students.

Miss Robards sponsors the French Club, which is open to advanced French students.

A gala party, corresponding to a celebration held annually in France the twelfth night after Christmas, was given by the members.

During the meetings, besides discussing French customs, French games were played.

Officers in charge were president, Jean Johnson; vice-president, Bettie Poole; secretary, Jeanne Paige; and treasurer, Jean Armstrong.

S. P. Q. R. STUDIED ROMAN LIFE

Various sorts of Latin contests and games seemed to be the most popular form of entertainment enjoyed by the members during their S. P. Q. R. meetings. For fuller appreciation of the language, the group studied the life and customs of the ancient Romans. The singing of songs in Latin added enjoyment and variety to the programs.

The S. P. Q. R., under the sponsorship of Miss Buck and Miss Wood, is open to all Latin students who have had at least one semester of the language. The purpose of the club is to further the interest in Latin and its value to the student.

ACE OF CLUBS DONATES TO THE RED CROSS

"Freshmen Only!" is the by-word of the Ace of Clubs. Every student with a "B" average in his solids may join the Ace of Clubs and enjoy its activities. Miss Pritchard sponsors the club whose purpose is to better acquaint freshmen.

During the year they had two initiation parties, donated funds to the Red Cross, and took a trip to the Goodman Theater. Their programs for each meeting are suggested by the members.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY ENJOYED CAPABLE SPEAKERS

One of the many speakers enjoyed by the members this year was Mr. Spohn, who spoke of the real significance of membership in the National Honor Society. Julius Pewowar, former president of the organization, enumerated the many advantages of membership in the group in college as well as in the business world. "What to Expect Upon Graduation" was ably discussed by Mr. Fred Gilles of the Inland Steel Corporation.

This year the National Honor Society, sponsored by Miss Gustafson, was composed of 75 members, less than fifteen per cent of the class. The members, who are chosen by the faculty, must be in the upper quarter of the class scholastically, and be outstanding in such qualities as service, leadership, and character.

DRAMATIC CLUB LEARNED THE ART OF STAGE MAKEUP

The school thespians spent meetings learning the art of stage settings, and discussing the current plays as they arrived in Chicago.

Officers of the club were Jean Klein, president; Lillian Wiggins, vice-president; Marian Meyer, secretary; and Mary Ellen Murray, treasurer who arranged programs which included skits by members of the club. At one meeting a group of readings were given by Miss Geraldine Moberg, dramatic teacher, who was once a member of the club.

They sponsored the fall and the senior play and with Miss Virginia Davis, faculty advisor, some of the members saw "Life With Father" in Chicago.

Thirty-three students comprised the membership of the Commercial Club whose purpose it is to encourage and make business explorations and contacts by having speakers on employment situations, interviews, conduct, ethics, and actual visitation of business in this region. Any junior or senior in the commercial course, with a "C" average recommended by his commercial teachers, and interested in taking part in the club activities is eligible.

As a project for the year, the club compiled a page about its activities for the Junior Red Cross scrap book.

There was an initiation party held in the girls' gym. On December 19, a Christmas party replaced the regular club meeting. On October 31, Mr. Scherer spoke on "What's the Score — Financially Speaking?" On November 14, Miss Harding and Mr. Seamonson from the Employment Office spoke in discussion form on commercial positions and their qualifications.

SAND IS THE THEME OF 1940 DUNES

The Dunes staff edited the 1940 Dunes. A comic melodrama entitled "Dark Doings at the Crossroads" or "Who Stole the Salad-Dressing?" was presented at the climax of a heated sales campaign. Dunes agents sold over 1,000 copies.

Other members of the editorial staff were Betty Jayne Compton, Arlyne Stoehr, Nancy Black, Bette Lu Krudup, Mary Alice Massaro, Doris Hayward, Mary Lawler, Betty Ballard, Loretta Kochery, Marge Leeney, Norma Ellen Kristoff, Mary June Larson, Jerry O'Neil, Fauneil Jaques, Gwendolyn Amoss, and Alvin Dust.

Jane Wolf was the business manager of the Dunes. Her staff consisted of Bill Smith, Mildred Pictor, Sam Postlewaite, Irene Duggan, Jeanne Wendell, Dorothy Yoder, Arnold Eggebrecht, Betty Marfell, and Audry Rice. Billie Heninger was the bookkeeper.

The thirteen representatives who attended the N. S. P. A. convention accompanied by Mr. Scherer, financial advisor, were Jean Keith, Eldonna Rinkenberg, Betty Jayne Compton, Jane Carroll, Ora Mae Calnon, Nancy Cleveland, Marge Hulett, Ralph Vogel, Beatrice Hesterman, Ray Longhway, Jeanne Wendell, Jane Wolf, and Bill Smith.

Miss McGranahan is the faculty advisor for the editorial staff.

The Dunes staff acknowledges Miss Ellen McGranahan, editorial advisor of the yearbook; Mr. C. L. Scherer, financial advisor of the yearbook; Mr. O. W. Bodie of the Bodie Studio; Miss Olga Schubkegel, art advisor of the yearbook; Miss Oza Cunningham for her work on "Dark Doings at the Crossroads" or "Who Stole the Salad Dressing?"; the entire cast for "Dark Doings at the Crossroads"; Mr. Frederick J. Noer and Mr. Joe Todd of the Indianapolis Engraving Company; Mr. Charles DeLaney of the DeLaney Printing Company; Mr. Jac Ochiltree of the David J. Malloy Cover Company; Doug Warner for the design on the 1940 Dunes cover; Mr. Frank V. Dudley for his picture, "The Trail of the Wind," used in the opening section of the 1940 Dunes; Miss Elizabeth Ames, art supervisor of Gary schools for lending the engraving of Mr. Frank V. Dudley's picture, "The Trail of the Wind"; the advertisers of the 1940 Dunes; the office force of the Hammond High School for secretarial help; Mr. S. M. Postlewaite for help in the advertising section.

The engravings in the 1940 Dunes were produced by the Indianapolis Engraving Company of Indianapolis, Indiana.

The 1940 Dunes was printed by the DeLaney Printing Company of Hammond, Indiana.

The 1940 Dunes staff acknowledges Mr. Bodie for the Dunes pictures used on division pages.

The Calumet Herald, the school's weekly publication, contributed a year of "New" as well as News to the school. Under the supervision of Mr. A. T. Bolt, faculty sponsor, and editors-in-chief Jim Chambers and Don Walstrum, the staff was reduced to about half the size of previous years and according to Chambers, "It ran like a dream."

Probably inspired by their new glass enclosed office and equipment, the staff members, Marge Adley, Dot Fallows, Alice Ludwig, Susanne Pugh, Elaine Ramage, Leonard Schroeter, Hannah Levin, Lester Clark, Bob Weiss, Jerry Kettler, Ed Labas, and their editors became the first staff to publish 30 editions of the Herald in a year, the first four column paper, the first Herald extra, which was handed out at the sectional basketball tournament, and also the first staff to use passes which availed them to go places via the privilege of the press.

The reporters headed by Chambers and Don Walstrum, co-editors; Don McNeill, sports editor; Louis Sosin, news editor; Gerry Poole and Bettee Poole, feature editors; Ruth Adkins, circulation manager; Bob Howerton, business manager; and Bertha Naugle, news bureau editor, put out an eight page Christmas edition, attended the annual Medill press conference in Chicago, sponsored an all school party in November, and presented the Mighty Herald Art Players in a horror skit for an auditorium session.

The Quill and Scroll is an honorary journalistic society which gives recognition to the outstanding writers in the school. The qualifications for membership are that the student must be in the upper one-third of his class scholastically, be a senior, and must have given service to a school publication. All the editors of the Herald were members of the Quill and Scroll, establishing a precedent for the Herald. The members from Hammond High were Jim Chambers, Don Walstrum, Louis Sosin, Bob Weiss, Jerry Kettler, Gerry Poole, Bob Howerton, Ed Labas, Bertha Naugle, and Lois Nuoffer.

Pauline Fischer, a junior, and a member of a journalism class, won a first in the national feature contest sponsored by the Quill and Scroll.

Louis Sosin won third place in the news writing contest in the Medill Press Contest at Northwestern University.

Bob Howerton won honorable mention in advertising, and Dot Fallows received honorable mention in the November Quill and Scroll Contests.

AUTOMOBILE CLUB PROMOTED SAFE DRIVING

Beep! Beep! Here comes the Automobile Club with Mr. Thorsen as back seat driver. The club had forty-five members this year and their activities included safety movies, speakers, discussion, and participation in city safety movements. On November 11, they heard Police Chief Martinson talk, on "The Safety Record of Hammond;" State Trooper Calahan spoke on "Traffic Safety" on December 19; and on January 16, City Judge Stodola spoke on "Safety in Driving." The purpose of the club is "to promote an interest in safe driving among beginning drivers." Only seniors can belong to the Automobile Club, and each member must have a driver's license.

JUNIOR RED CROSS MADE SCRAPBOOK

The loan project initiated last year by the Junior Red Cross, which enabled a pupil to borrow up to $15 for medical care, was a bigger success this year than last. Eighteen loans varying in size were made. Miss Lewis, assistant director of the National Red Cross, spoke to the group on the activities of this organization in foreign countries. This year the Red Cross Council asked all other school clubs to aid in compiling a scrapbook to be sent to outside countries.

All students can be members of the Red Cross. The Council consists of one member elected from each advisory. The purpose of this group is to better the welfare and health of our students and to work in cooperation with the Senior Red Cross. Miss Von Grep and Miss Williams are the co-sponsors.

The officers were president, Robert Fuss; vice-president, Irene Sweeko; secretary, Josephine Bindas; and treasurer, Bob Harder.

STUDENTS ASSISTED IN LIBRARY

The library staff consisted of seventeen girls and fourteen boys. Those who were desk helpers charged out books, checked attendance slips, checked in books and magazines, and arranged cards. The room workers' duties included helping students find books, assisting at the card catalogue and Readers' Guide, and shelving books. Their requirements were courtesy, willingness to work, and dependability. In room 211 there were nine helpers; in room 116 there were fifteen; there were ten in room 14; ten in room 202-A; and ten in room 5.

Gifts totaling two hundred and forty dollars were received from the senior class, the junior class, and approximately twenty-five clubs. During the year the P. T. A. donated forty dollars; the Herald gave fifty-five dollars, and the Dunes gave thirty-dollars.

The library subscribed to fifty magazines and four newspapers including the New York Times (Sunday Edition), The Chicago Daily News, The Chicago Tribune, and the Hammond Times.

Miss Hawver, the librarian was assisted by Miss Exley and Marilyn Watt. The library served over seven hundred pupils daily.

BOHEMIAN CLUB SPONSORED TICKET SALES FOR CARL SANDBURG

The members of the Bohemian Club gain entrance by their literary ability and the recommendation of their English teachers. Under the leadership of Miss Kennedy, the club published their annual magazine, the "Cresset." The Bohemians sponsored the selling of tickets for Carl Sandburg's lecture and secured several speakers for their bi-monthly meetings. Original compositions, which were used as prospective material for the "Cresset," were read at every other meeting. There were thirty members in the club and the officers were Bob Weiss, president; Norma Abbott, vice-president; Jeanne Wendell, secretary; Pat Bonner, treasurer.

BIOLOGY CLUB EXPERIMENTED WITH VITAMIN B-1

Along with their other activities, the Biology Club took care of all of the plants in the high school during vacations and the regular school year. The club, under the guidance of Miss Reeder, took part in many activities, among these being the experiments with vitamin B-1 for growing plants. The thirty members went to the Flower Show at Navy Pier and took bird trips during the spring. The club donated several books to the library. The officers were Edward Johnson, president; Margaret Sherby, secretary; and Paul Robinson, treasurer.

GIRL RESERVES SPONSORED DANCE

The year the Girl Reserves adopted several orphans from the Carmelite home and sent them holiday and birthday greetings. During Christmas vacation, the club, together with the George Rogers Clark and Tech clubs, went caroling. The three clubs also had a joint initiation party at which Hammond High girls played hostess.

Miss Jane Harding from the Indiana State Employment Service talked to the Girl Reserves on "Preparation for a Job in Business or Industry."

To become a member of the club a girl must be a 9-A student or above. The club is under the sponsorship of Miss Bollenbach, Miss Alderton, and Miss White.

ARTS AND CRAFTS CLUB TOOK TRIP TO CHICAGO

The combination of educational and social activities added variety to the Arts and Crafts Club's events of the year.

The Hearts and Darts Valentine ball sponsored by the club proved to be unusually successful. Other social activities included the annual banquet and initiation, the entering of a winning float in the Fall Merchant's Parade and the Spring Parade, participation in the all-school project, and a trip to the Dunes.

In order to further their knowledge of art, the members took a trip to Chicago where they visited the Academy of Fine Arts, the Art Institute, the department of home decorations at Marshall Field's and the Goodman Theater.

The club rendered its services to other school organizations by producing the scenery for the fall and the senior play and by making colorful posters to advertise various school functions.

The club's officers were Doug Warner, president; Mary Lee Kennard, vice-president; Gerry Stankie, secretary-treasurer; and Rosemary Tanner, reporter.

CHORAL CLUB BROADCAST OVER LOCAL RADIO STATION

Enthusiastically carrying out many activities, the Choral Club, under the leadership of Miss Alyce Cain, enjoyed a very successful year.

The club participated in the Christmas and Spring Music Festivals, broadcast over a local radio station, entertained at auditorium sessions, and sang for the 1940 commencement exercises.

The members also attended the Chicago Civic Opera Company, caroled at Christmas time, and gave the Musical Comedy, "Tune In."

To climax their activities the club enjoyed a party in the spring, the last activity at which the officers, Kenneth Bock, Walter Juergens, Wilma Benson, and Don McNeill, president, treasurer, secretary, and librarian, respectively, presided.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB SANG IN CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL

The Girls' Glee Club was very active this year under the supervision of Miss Alyce Cain and the leadership of officers Marilyn Mattix, Janet Lynn, Olive Carley, and Dorothy Nordberg, as president, secretary, treasurer, and librarian respectively.

The club sang at the Christmas Festival, in "Tune In," and at the Spring Festival; the group visited the Chicago Civic Opera House.

The group also sang for auditorium sessions, for P. T. A. meetings, caroled at Christmas in the high school halls, and enjoyed a party in the spring.

The club is composed mainly of girls who have had some training in singing.

JUNIOR HISTORICAL SOCIETY STUDIED DEVELOPMENT OF HAMMOND

Any student who is interested in its aims may become a member of the Junior Historical Society.

The society was first formed last year with the purpose of maintaining interest in local history and historical records. Members obtained interviews with old settlers of Hammond and reenacted them at club meetings. These interviews were typewritten and kept as reference material.

As a term project the club held an exhibit of historical records collected by its members and made a scrap book of historical facts.

Miss Taylor sponsors the club whose officers are Dorothy Fallows, president; Audry Rice, vice-president; Leona Schaadt, secretary; Eugene Brunner, treasurer.

SCIENCE AND RADIO CLUB VISITED MUSEUM OF SCIENCE AND INDUSTRY

Scientific experiments were performed in the Science and Radio Club. The Club experimented with glass blowing, metal engraving, and electrical charges.

During the year the club visited the Museum of Science and Industry in Chicago. On April 20, the club members held an initiation party and dance for the new members.

Officers of the organization were George Mazock, president; Alvin Nawacki, vice-president; Cecil David, secretary; and Nellie Ritchie, treasurer.

The purpose of the club is to promote interest in science. To be eligible one must have a "C" average in science.

SPEECH ARTS PROMOTED INTEREST IN SPEECH ACTIVITIES

The Speech Arts Club, directed by Mr. Scherer and Mr. Reed, is organized to foster interest in speech activities. To be eligible for membership a student must have an active interest in at least one of the many speech activities offered by the club.

The debate team took part in approximately one hundred debates during the year. They won the Wheaton Invitational Tourney, the State Debate League District Championship and the Zone Championship. The debaters participated in the State Tournament at Manchester College, North Manchester, and in the National Forensic League State Tourney at Terre Haute.

PRESS CLUB SPONSORED TRIP TO BROOKFIELD ZOO

Made up of thirty boys who must have taken printing, the Press Club gives its members a chance to study, among other topics, newspapers and advertising.

They held an anagram contest, sponsored a trip to Brookfield Zoo, and had their annual Benjamin Franklin banquet.

Their officers were president, Darrel Gapinski; vice-president, Ralph Vogel; secretary, Henry Snedden; treasurer, Frank Zellers; assistant treasurer, Tom Patterson; sergeant-at-arms, Adam Czarney.

SOCIAL REPRESENTATIVES SPONSORED ALL-SCHOOL PARTIES

The social representatives, made up of one member from each advisory, under the leadership of Miss McPherson and Bill Doege, secretary of student activities, conducted and sponsored a series of after-school dances giving instructions to those who did not know how to dance.

They also sponsored the 2H Club Picnic, the Christmas dance, the St. Patrick's party, the April Shower dance, and the May dance.

In this work the representatives were assisted by the members of the central social committee, composed of Bill Doege, Abe White, Bill Jens, Geraldine Stankie, Ernest Besch, Tom Kolle, Tony Certa, Bette Lu Krudup, Mary Lawler, Betty Ballard, Virgene Pepperdine, Bonita Robbins, Shirley Cole, Mary Ellen Murray, Del Gauthier, and Norma Ellen Kristoff.

WON'T YOU COME OUT TO PLAY?

Fifty girls joined the G. A. C. this year. They played speedball, volleyball, basketball, clock golf, ring tennis, and soft ball. Swimming and archery were also offered. To become a member of G. A. C. a girl must make a varsity team or two class teams, or pass two complete achievement tests. She must have a C average and spend at least one night a week in sports.

The club's aim is to stimulate interest in girls' sports and to promote good sportsmanship.

As a term project the girls compiled a page for the Red Cross scrap book, they made a trip to the Dunes State Park, and sent representatives to Muncie to the state play-day conference. Members attended the Chicago-Wabash football game on the Chicago campus. The club sold candy in the main hall after school.

The club is under the faculty sponsorship of Miss Georgia Anderson and Miss Marian Dietrich. Officers were president, Dorothy Downing; head of sports, Ruth Andree; secretary, Betty Kroer; treasurer, Marie Klebs.

Bottom row: Mason, Strockman, DeLaney, Kwolek, Zahre, Minter, Buckner, Smith, Skamfor, Hart

MONITORS SIGNED ADMITS

Familiar to everyone is the call of the monitors — "Admit, please." There were, including substitutes, 130 monitors, whose duty it was to keep order in the halls and protect students.

This year a much different and more efficient admit system was established whereby admits which must have a definite destination are signed by the monitors.

Miss Strange, assisted by Miss M. L. Scott, is the faculty advisor. Delphia Minter, secretary of safety, aided by the student committee composed of Ruth Adkins and Michael Lengyel, is the student supervisor.

The monitors assisted with the annual association project and gave one party during the year.

HAMMOND HIGH SCHOOL ASSOCIATION CONDUCTED "FRIENDSHIP WEEK"

"Friendship Week" was a new program evolving from the minds of House and Senate members. To acquaint new students with Hammond High and to make them feel a more important part of the school, there was an auditorium session introducing outstanding students in various fields of activity; a "big brother" or a "big sister," who did his best to be particularly helpful, was appointed for each new student; welcoming posters greeted new students in the halls; and as a conclusion for the week's activities there was an after-school dance, one of the most successful of the year.

Realizing the many advantages of completing a high school education, the Senate made a special investigation of all students who had withdrawn before graduation. They succeeded in persuading a large percentage of those students to return to classes.

Besides passing many new laws in connection with student government and revising old ones to make them more workable, the Association carried out a plan to keep the alumni acquainted with school activities by sending cards inviting them especially to the Musical Revue on May 3rd.

The annual "Association Week" was extremely successful this year and included such activities as safety day, election day, student-teacher day, and courtsey day.

April the 26th seven students from Hammond High motored to Muncie to attend a meeting of the Indiana Association of Student Councils and to discuss school problems and possible solutions.

The Hammond High School Association, of which every student and teacher is a part, is a self governing organization. It is guided by the Association officers, the Senate, House, cabinet, and court. It promotes a democratic spirit, maintains good discipline, trains for citizenships, and aids in the direction of all school activities.

EVA LIPS SPOKE AT FORUM

The 1939-40 Forum was a close second to the world in the race for front page news. Under the sponsorship of the Association, it met once a month and brought an authority on a current topic of interest.

The speakers were Dr. Powell Moore, University of Indiana Extension, on "America in the present World Crisis;" Mr. Russell Shull, Director of the National Forum on "The Heart of the Economic Muddle;" Mr. Clarence Senior on "Mexico in the News;" Eva Lips, famous German author, on "I Saw It Happen;" Mr. F. Marshall Smith, executive secretary of Hammond Housing Authority on "Housing in Our Time;" Mrs. Quincy Wright, chairman of the Department of Foreign Relations of the League of Women Voters, on "Why We Should Know South America;" The Hammond High School Debate Team on "Should the United States Government Own and Operate the Railroads?" and Mr. Carl Chatters, executive director of the National Municipal Finance Officers' Association, on "How Far Should the National Government Extend Its Power?"

HAMMOND HIGH SCHOOL
PRESENTS

"THE HOTTENTOT"

Larry Crawford, Donald Brush, and Sam Harrington, Abby White, are interested as Peggy Fairfax, Betty Ballard, points out the position of her horse on the track.

Peggy shows Sam a trophy.

Swift, Alvin Dunt, takes orders; Mrs. Gilford, Alice Ludwig, gives orders; and Mrs. Chadwick, Virginia Szycezak, looks very much worried.

Sam Harrington examines himself for broken bones, while Swift is amazed at his tactics.

Mr. Ollie Gilford, Fred Carter, Mrs. Ollie Gilford, Alice Ludwig, and Alice Fairfax, Jack Carroll, are absorbed in the racing news; Larry Crawford, Donald Brush, listens to the idle chatter of Mrs. Chadwick, Virginia Szycezak.

"TUNE IN"

Jean Kroggins, Pat Bonner, sings a duet with the owner of WTNT, Joe Brown, Kenneth Beck.

Mitzi, mysterious singer, played by Esther Papageorge, smiles at the advertising manager of WTNT, Jerry Kennedy, Don McNeill.

Tilly, Millie, and Billie; Betty Church, Elaine Ramage, and Pat Prendergast form the trio for "Tune In."

The announcer, J. Bottomby Binks, Bob Hopkins, goes over his script with Dynamo Dave, production manager, Bob Howerton.

Bob, the engineer, Harold Stump, tries to shut out the terrible singing of Mrs. Kraggins, Barbara McMillan, while Mr. Phipps, Paul Haynes, and Mr. Kroggins, James McGuire, try to look interested. Mr. Archibald Throckmorton, Bill Dooge, is indifferent to the noise.

"WHAT A LIFE"

Dick Van Tillburg and Frank Studola controlled the lights for "What a Life."

Miss Wheeler, Lillian Wiggins, lay the evidence, the stolen band instruments, before Mr. Bradley, principal, Norman Clark, Mr. Ferguson, the detective, Don Pope, and Miss Shee, Mr. Bradley's secretary, look at the evidence.

Honey bargains with Veechito. Mike Longrel, Henry says 42. Veechito says ten cents! Mr. Ferguson supervises the deal.

Bill Green, Jerry O'Neil, is amazed at Mr. Nelson, Ray Longway, and Miss Shee, Joy Green.

To the Student:

You hear much of organized Labor to day . . . You hear good and you hear bad. But regardless of what or how much you hear, Labor Unions, especially Industrial type unions, are becoming and will continue to be a dominant and influential element in our economic life.

The student who has the courage to face the turmoil of our economic life will do well to study all phases of labor organization . . . study them with the objective of correcting the evils and building up the good points. The future leadership of organized labor must come from the student body of today. Much depends upon the type of leadership which you, the students, will give this great movement.

A PERTINENT FACT

In Hammond and Calumet City there are approximately 15,000 homes. We have as competitors, 32 coal yards, 6 industries, several oil companies that supply oil burners, a public utility that sells gas burners. We are proud of the fact that we supply heat to about 1,000 homes. There is a reason.
